

Crystal Palace FC (Women) Social Media Policy

Crystal Palace FC (Women) supports and upholds the FA's Social Media Policy which applies to social networks including (but not limited to) Twitter, Facebook, Instagram and online blogs. This is in conjunction with the policies in place with our parent club, Crystal Palace FC

The policy on social media conduct prohibits the following breaches:

Any comment made about an appointed Match Official prior to a game.

Any implication of bias- where a comment alleges or implies bias by another participant* at any time.

Questioning integrity- where a comment calls into question the integrity of another participant* at any time.

Making personal or offensive comments- where a comment is personal in nature such that it causes, or may cause, offence at any time.

Any comment that causes "detriment to the Game"

Any reference to Participant means an Affiliated Association, Authorised Agent, Competition, Club, Club Official, Licensed Agent, Player, Official, Match Official, Management Committee Member, Member or Employee of an affiliated Club and all such persons who are from time to time participating in any activity sanctioned either directly or indirectly by The Football Association.

Comments of particular concern are references to Participant's Ethnic Origin, Nationality, Race, Colour, Faith, Sexuality, Disability and Gender.

Crystal Palace Ladies have and will develop a fully supported media team that, beyond output, will monitor content and deliver the necessary levels of assurance, subject to the policies in place. This will include a compliance officer (TBC), through whom any issues can be raised
